

The Celebration of Worship

“Kids Hope” Weekend

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

† Sunday only

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery.
—Thank you

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. We are among a growing number of Lutheran Churches that have committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week. All who wish to be fed in their Christian faith, and those who wish to express their faith for the first time, are more than welcome to join us in the sacrament of Holy Communion. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, “Welcome to the Lord’s Table.” As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

Share the Care

A group from the Pastoral Care Committee has gathered to address the needs of members of our congregation who may temporarily need assistance due to an illness or family crisis.

Share the Care is an organization that trains and educates volunteers to work with those who fit the above description. Does this sound like a ministry God is calling you to explore?

If you find that He is pointing you in this direction, please contact:

† Sharon Kirby-Cole at bearbearsbears@att.net;

† Gloria Borchert at gloriaborcher@yahoo.com, or

† Tanja Nelson at Tanja@fclc.org.

† An informational meeting is set for April 26 at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary. Please join us!

Many ministries which FCLC has supported have been invited to share the focus of their mission at our annual OUTREACH FAIR on April 24th and 25th. This is a unique opportunity to see for yourself "Your Outreach Dollars at Work." Meet and greet knowledgeable people who are eager to explain that portion of God's work which they embrace.

Please plan time in your weekend worship schedule to stroll through the Fellowship Hall and become familiar with the broad spectrum of ministries FCLC supports.

Bob Ritzen, Chaplain at Hospice in Louisville, will be sharing the message at all services next weekend!

Refreshments will be served!

The Third Weekend in Easter

April 17 & 18, 2010

He Is Risen! Alleluia!

He is risen! Alleluia! The lesson in Acts presents the conversion of Saul from someone anxious to carry out threats against Jesus' disciples to one who is obedient and ready to do God's will. Rather than go to the city to take prisoners, he is going to the city to take orders from the very person he wanted to persecute. This was a miraculous and spectacular transformation, complete with bright lights from heaven shining down on Saul.

Our own conversions and transformations may not involve lights flashing from heaven. Some of mine have been much less spectacular and have come, from of all places, the television. Some from being in nature. Others from music. All have been the result of prayer and waiting. Jesus will provide the insights and care we need as we ask for it (Ps30 1:5). They will come in His own time (Ps 30:7).

When Jesus calls on us, He provides what we need to be successful (John 21:5, 6). What Jesus wants most is for us to care for one another (John 21: 15-17). Think of ways you can care for someone in your life. Perhaps a family member, work associate, friend or a stranger in an unexpected setting. Care doesn't have to be with a capital "C." Care can come as a series of little c's that can impact a person's life in ways you may not, and most likely won't, even realize. So don't wait for a big event. Start now with just a smile. Or be willing to just be present with another person going through a tough time.

Jesus, I pray you call on us to be transformed to care for your lambs. Helps us find ways to take action. In Jesus' name. Amen.

-Ray Fossman
